ORDER AUTHORIZING CLERK
TO SIGN MINISTERIAL
ORDERS

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Order Authorizing Clerk To Sign Ministerial Orders dated August 3, 1993, is amended as follows:

T.S. McGregor, the duly appointed clerk of the above entitled court, and such deputies as designated by the clerk, are delegated the authority to sign all ministerial orders and matters without further direction from the court. In carrying out these duties, the clerk shall be guided by the United States Bankruptcy Code, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Local Rules and other applicable federal laws and regulations. Ministerial orders and matters are orders and matters that are prescribed by statute or rule that do not require personal judgment or discretion, and if based on notice and hearing, there has been strict compliance with notice requirements and no objections are pending. For the purposes of this order, ministerial orders and matters include but are not limited to:

1. Orders establishing trial and hearing dates and continuances thereto;
2. Orders allowing the examination of entities pursuant to FRBP 2004 and LBR 2004-1;
3. Orders permitting the payment of filing fees in installments;
4. Orders of discharge in chapter 7, 12 and 13 cases, except chapter 13 hardship discharges;
5. Orders reopening cases to correct an administrative error;
6. Orders limiting notice pursuant to FRBP 2002(h);
7. Orders closing cases and discharging trustees;
8. Orders dismissing chapter 7 and 13 cases and all orders of conversion, except from Chapter 11 to Chapter 12;
9. Orders for refund of monies tendered pursuant to 11 USC 347(a);
10. Orders permitting association or withdrawal of counsel and allowing participation in a particular case;
