

Biographical Statement

Robert H. Leeds, Jr., was born in Pensacola, Florida, March 26, 1942; Admitted to Bar 1969, Washington; 1970 United States District Court, Eastern District of Washington; and United States Supreme Court, 1990.

Education Gonzaga University (B.A. 1964; JD, 1968). Member Phi Alpha Delta; Gonzaga Law Review, 1967-1968.

General: Mr. Leeds worked for the Washington State Attorney General in 1969 and for the Spokane County Prosecutor in 1969-1970. Mr. Leeds is a member of the Spokane County Bar Association and has served on its committees: Judicial Selection, Bar Reorganization, Medical Malpractice Panel, Board of Trustees, and is a member of its Family Law Section. Mr. Leeds currently serves as Commissioner Pro Tem of the Spokane County Superior Court including acting on its Mandatory Arbitration Panel. Mr. Leeds is a member of the Washington State Bar Association having served on its Young Lawyer Section and Task Force on Professional Utilization. Mr. Leeds is a member of the American Bar and Washington State Trial Lawyers Associations.

Principal in Schimanski & Leeds, P.S., from 1970 to 1999
Of Counsel to Paine, Hamblen, Coffin, Brooke & Miller, LLP, September 1, 1999 to date.

Areas of Practice:

Accidents - Personal Injury - Property Damage - Death
Adoption
Bankruptcy - Debtors - Creditors
Construction
Dissolution and Family
Elder Law
Guardianship
Insurance
Malpractice - Professional
Real Estate - Landlord and Tenant - Closing
Wills, Estate Planning and Probate

Other: Mr. Leeds has served as Trustee and President of the Holy Names Foundation and as Trustee and President of Manito Golf and Country Club.