 - (A) The purpose of the notice;
 - (B) What a party receiving the notice must do in order to object to the action contemplated by the notice and the time within which an objecting party must act; and
 - (C) That the act may be performed or the court may enter an order without an actual hearing or further notice unless a written objection is timely served and filed.
- (2) A notice may be included with a motion in which case the pleading shall be captioned as a motion and notice.

(b) Service of Notice

- (1) To Whom Given
 - (A) "Notice,@ as used in this rule shall mean notice to all creditors, equity security holders, indenture trustees, the debtor, the chairperson of any committee appointed in the case, the United States trustee, and any other parties in interest.

- (2) By Whom Given

Any party seeking an order or other authority based on notice and hearing shall be responsible to give such notice as is required.

(3) How Given

If the recipient is a registered participant in the case in which the notice is being filed, the Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF) is service of the notice; provided, however, if the notice filed is to be considered at a hearing scheduled to occur within 48 hours (excluding weekends and holidays) of the filing, then at or before the time of filing, the filer shall serve the notice by separate email upon all recipients entitled to notice who are registered participants, or shall provide such notice by facsimile or by hand delivery. If the recipient is not a registered participant, notice shall be by first-class mail.

(4) Certification of Giving Notice

If the notice was given to a Master Mailing List (MML) or Limited Mailing List (LML), the affidavit or declaration shall also state the date on which it was retrieved from the database of the court.

(c) Time Allowed for Objections

- (1) The moving party shall provide at least twenty-one (21) days, plus three (3) additional days if required by Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9006(f), for objections prior to presentation of an order or the taking of an action, unless a different time is prescribed.

(d) Mailing Lists

- (1) The addressees of notices shall be in accordance with Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002(g).
