

Rule 3016-1

Chapter 11 Pre-Confirmation Requirements

(a) Applicability

This rule applies only to cases under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Affidavit or Certificate

The debtor shall file with the petition for relief under Chapter 11, or within fifteen (15) days thereafter an affidavit or certificate under penalty of perjury that discloses the following information:

- (1) The name and addresses of the members of any creditors' committee organized before the order for relief under Chapter 11;
- (2) If the debtor is operating a business, the following information for the thirty (30) day period following the order for relief:
 - (A) The amount proposed to be paid pursuant to subdivision (d) below to insiders if the debtor is a corporation, or to the debtor, insiders or members of the partnership if the debtor is an individual or partnership;
 - (B) The proposed payroll for employee labor exclusive of (A) above;
 - (C) The operating expenses, exclusive of (A) and (B) above;
 - (D) The estimated profit or loss, after deduction of expenses under (A), (B), and (C) above; and
 - (E) Any non-cash operating expenses proposed not to be paid for any reason.
- (3) An averment that no compensation shall be paid in violation of subdivision (d) of this rule.

(c) Compensation

- (1) If the trustee or debtor in possession is operating a business, no compensation shall be paid to the debtor, or to insiders from the order of relief until the confirmation of a plan, except in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision.
- (2) The trustee or debtor in possession shall give notice to all parties on the Master Mailing List of the intent to pay compensation. The notice shall state the amount of compensation, to whom the compensation is to be paid, the amount of compensation paid over the past twelve (12) months, and the nature of the services to be performed. The notice shall summarize the provisions of subparagraph (3) below and shall further state that any party in interest may object to the compensation and request a hearing at any time prior to confirmation.

- (3) Compensation may commence after notice is given. Any party in interest objecting to the compensation shall do so in writing, and has the duty to request a hearing on the objection. The compensation shall continue until the Court orders otherwise. The Court shall provide an expedited hearing on the objection. If the Court rules that the amount received prior to the hearing is excessive, it may order disgorgement of funds back to the estate.

(d) Funds of the Estate

Upon entry of an order for relief in a case under Chapter 11, the debtor in possession shall open or designate a depository account or accounts in the name of the debtor in possession, and close all old accounts. All funds of the estate shall be transferred to the new account or accounts. All receipts and disbursements of the debtor in possession shall be through the new account or accounts. All disbursements for living expenses of the debtor or for salary or living expenses of the debtor or insider pursuant to subparagraph (c) of this rule shall be in form of a check made payable to the debtor or insider.

(e) Monthly Financial Report

- (1) A debtor in possession or trustee operating a business shall file with the Court a monthly balance sheet and profit and loss statement prepared on an accrual basis, unless such requirement is modified by the court for cause shown. ~~The profit and loss statement, showing cash receipts and disbursements, shall be in sufficient detail to enable parties in interest to adequately assess the current financial condition, profitability, and desirability of continued operation of the business. The monthly financial report shall include a certification that all taxes due have been paid and that all tax deposits have been made, and shall indicate the amount paid or deposited, the date of payment or deposit, and the taxing agency paid or the place the tax was deposited.~~
- (2) The above financial information shall be filed within fifteen (15) days of the close of the month during which relief was ordered and within fifteen (15) days of the close of every month thereafter, until a plan is confirmed or the case is converted or dismissed. A copy of each monthly balance sheet and profit and loss statement shall be sent to the chairman of any creditors' committee by the debtor in possession or trustee.
- (3) If the debtor is a farmer, monthly reports shall be made as required by LBR 2082-1(f).
